

COMMITTEES TO SELECT CITIES

Places for Holding National Conventions Are to Be Chosen in December.

New York, Oct. 29.—Convention cities for the Republican and Democratic national conventions are to be selected early in December at meetings of the national committees of the two parties. Both committees meetings will be held in Washington, the Democrats on December 1 and the Republicans on December 14.

Outlines Campaign Plan.
In addition to leaving his call, chairman Charles E. Hull, of the Republican national committee, set forth the probable line of campaign to be followed by his party. It will include "an attack on the Democratic tariff," "criticism of the administration's handling of the affairs in Europe and Mexico."

Charges that Democracy has failed to keep its promise of an economical administration and has failed to keep its 1912 platform pledges, including the declaration in favor of a single term for the president.

"Attacks on the administration's government ship and other administration measures."

Three After Democratic Meeting.
Chicago, St. Louis and Dallas have applied for the Democratic convention. The first named has offered to keep all the expenses of the national committee. Dallas has offered the use of an auditorium and a bonus of $100,000.

The date for the meeting of the committee was set after Mr. McCombs had conferred with President Wilson by telephone.

In addition to naming a convention city, the committee will decide all matters regarding membership of the committee and devise ways and means for raising money for the conduct of the campaign, both before and after the convention. At present there are only two contests in sight, one from Kentucky and the other from Oregon.

BOULEVARD IS TO BE IMPROVED

Mayor Lea Makes Birthday Promise to Central Improvement League.

Members of the Central Improvement league and citizens of the district between Cotton avenue and Piedras street held a get-together feast Friday night when they celebrated Mayor Tom Lea's 25th birthday anniversary.

More than 100 members of the Central league and citizens gathered in the Manhattan grocery to hear talks by Mayor Lea, E. M. Whitaker, president of the school board, John W. Fisher and Judge Dan M. Jackson. George C. Robertson gave a German rendition of Barbara Fritchie. L. M. McChesney, president of the league, introduced the speakers, and refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, beer and coffee, were served, with cigars on the side.

Whitaker Gives Encouragement.
In behalf of the school board, E. M. Whitaker spoke of the efforts being made by the board to improve and add to the school facilities of the city and encouraged the meeting by saying that unquestionably a school would be located in the central territory before a great while. He mentioned and endorsed the efforts of the league to have Boulevard paved from Cotton avenue to Piedras.

Mayor Lea Makes Promise.
Mayor Lea told the meeting that it was his 25th birthday anniversary and he was glad to be celebrating the event. He gave a heart to heart talk to the citizens on what the administration had to contend with, told of the work which he hoped to accomplish and promised that the city council would without delay grade Boulevard to Piedras and put it in shape so that it would serve a better purpose than now for the people to travel over. The paving of the street he said would come just as soon as the council could get to it. Mayor Lea explained the paving problem the city has to solve, praised the members of the Central league for their enterprise and said it was just such cooperation as that shown in the meeting that has made El Paso the greatest city in the southwest.

Judge Jackson Speaks.
Judge Dan M. Jackson made a short talk, invited the Central Improvement league members to attend a similar meeting of the Alta Vista league next week and urged cooperation between the two improvement bodies to secure the improvements they wish.

John Fisher, chairman of the city street committee was called on and told briefly of the work of the committee and of his pleasure at being able to hear the wishes of the people of the central district.

Promotion Submitted.
Chairman L. M. McChesney told the mayor and the audience that the Central Improvement league, at a business meeting, had decided that if the school board will buy a plot of ground in that part of the city, the league will convert it into a park and beauty spot, and all the houses in the neighborhood will be torn down and a new school house built.

At the close of the meeting a number of the speakers were added to the Central league.

WHITTAKER
CLARK FOR JUDGE

May Oppose Price and Coldwell; Eugene Harris May Run Against Pool.

Considerable interest is being manifested at present in the lineup of candidates for the district judgeships. It is probable that Judge Dan M. Jackson will be a candidate for reelection to the position of judge of the 21st district court. If he goes to run, he will have the endorsement of the "anti ring" club. Judge F. R. Price, it is understood, will stand for reelection as judge of the 11th district court, as a "ring" man. Ballard Coldwell, appointed judge of the 21st district court when it was created last spring, it is understood will be a candidate to succeed himself, with the endorsement of the "ring."

E. M. Whitaker May Run.
The opposition lineup is not known at present. The names of E. M. Whitaker, Walter Scott and Leigh Clark, all "anti ring" supporters, have been mentioned, but none of the political prophets have been able to forecast whom these men, if they enter the race, will oppose.

District attorney W. W. Bridges is an avowed candidate to succeed himself. It is said the "anti ring" will back him. Thus far, the "anti ring" has been mentioned in opposition to W. W. Bridges.

C. W. Croon Not a Candidate.
C. W. Croon, it is understood, is being strongly urged by "ring" supporters to become a candidate to succeed himself as county attorney. Mr. Croon, it is stated, has announced that he would not be a candidate. C. L. Vowell may oppose him.

Justice J. J. Murphy announces that he is not a candidate to succeed himself, and Dick Evans says he is going after the job. Justice J. M. Deaver, mentioned as being in the race for county clerk, states that he will run as a candidate for the office of the county clerk.

Honorable Montoya, it is understood, will not be a candidate to succeed himself as constable. One of the latest whoose name has been mentioned for the position is Willie Chaves, an "anti ring" man. Fred Delgado and the Crooks have already been prominently mentioned as "ring" and "anti ring" candidates.

Eugene Harris for Judge.
Considerable interest is being manifested in the county judgeship. It is understood that if Eugene L. Harris desires to make the race, he will have the support of the "anti ring" club. Mr. Harris two years ago made the race against Adrian Pool and was defeated by 84 votes. It is contended that if Judge Pool is not again put up by the "ring" it will be a repeat of his record in the county commissioners' court.

A. S. Alaro, who two years ago ran against J. W. Brinkley for county auditor, was defeated, is being mentioned as a candidate for the place. Mr. Alaro is an "anti ring" supporter.

Harry Turner, an "anti ring" man, is being mentioned for county clerk. His name has also been proposed for county tax collector.

Dawson for County Clerk.
Jack Dawson is being mentioned as a candidate for county clerk on the "anti ring" ticket at the July county election. He will oppose Capt. W. D. Brinkley, who is running on the "anti ring" club. A. W. Norcor, law partner of W. R. Ware, is also being mentioned for county clerk, but district attorney against W. W. Bridges.

"Bravest Woman in the World" Has Ambition to Be Best Cook

Instead of the "flaccid" of the "big top" the band is playing and there sounds the clod of boots as the equestrian horses pound against the ring banks. In the "pad room" the clovers are joking and pranking about as they wait for their cues, acrobats and aerialists, actors and actresses are leaning against the guy ropes as they watch the workings of the interior of the circus, talking and chatting and laughing—that is, all except one.

That one sits apart, her chair a bale of hay, her attention riveted in the book before her. There comes her first cue. She lays the book aside, hurries forward, then hurries out again to the "big top" to resume the performance of the volume which interests her so much. A best seller? Not at all. For instead of a book, it is a book of life.

It is a book of life, and the reader of it is Zora, the "bravest woman in the world." Under the spreading white awning of the "big top," which comes here for a one day's engagement Saturday, November 4, she is known as the "bravest woman in the world," "honey" side of the "big top," which are not open to public gaze.

Not only is it a hobby with her, but it is also an accomplishment. For the dishes which Zora serves on the feast days of the circus, when the regular chefs of the cookhouse are cast out and the women take their places as the purveyors of food, are history with the Sells-Floto family.

Naturally Zora is to appear in the performance of the circus when it comes here, and she will be in the parade, too, for that matter, when it winds its way through the dusty town streets at 10:30 o'clock circus morning. As for her cooking—

Well, that's something that travels beyond the glitter and the sparkle, into the life of the circus which the audience does not see, the human, "honey" side of the "big top," which are not open to public gaze.
